My dear Mr. Plimpton:

The juniors who missed hearing you are all the more appreciative of your kind remembrance of them with the Tower of Knowledge. I hear on every side how much your talk was enjoyed.
We are all hoping that you will come again.

Most gratefully yours

Katharine Lee Bates.

My dear Mr. Thompson:

The pleasure of your letter has been very much appreciated.

I have been very busy

with the other things of the day.

I have not yet

been able to write you

more fully

than I have
